

PARTNER PROFILE

WHO WE ARE

The American Sports Builders Association (ASBA) is a non-profit trade association uniting nearly 600 builders, designers, and suppliers of sports facilities. Our mission is to uphold the highest standards in design, construction, and maintenance of tennis courts, tracks, fields, and sports surfaces

WHAT WE DO

ASBA exists to promote the highest standards of design, construction, and maintenance for all types of indoor and outdoor sports facilities.

ASBA serves as the centralized resource for builders, designers, and suppliers, as well as the owners, operators, players, and others who enjoy them.

What we can do for you and your business

- Accurate, up-to-date technical information
- Promoting industry interests and professional standards
- Providing a forum for networking and knowledge exchange
- Access cutting-edge education and resources
- Connect with industry leaders and decision-makers
- Contribute to setting industry standards and guidelines

www.sportsbuilders.org

COURTS • FIELDS • TRACKS

ASBA Membership Benefits

TECHNICAL RESOURCES: Manuals, guidelines, position papers, and mobile app tools for tennis courts, tracks, sports fields, pickleball courts, and more.

CERTIFICATION PROGRAMS: Demonstrate expertise with certifications like Certified Tennis Court Builder (CTCB) or Certified Field Builder (CFB).

EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES: On-demand learning, certification prep, and online buyer's guides.

NETWORKING EVENTS: Engage with peers at national meetings, trade shows, and regional site tours.

BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT: Visibility in ASBA's directory accessed by potential clients and industry professionals.

TECHNICAL MEETING & TRADE SHOW – general and division-specific technical sessions plus trade show, awards presentations, and networking.

WINTER MEETING – business meeting where divisions provide updates and set the schedule for the following year.

Membership Options

Visit www.sportsbuilders.org to explore technical guidelines, buyer's guides, certification details, and member directories.

Your Partner in Excellence.
Work with ASBA in helping to shape the future of sports facility design and construction!

SCAN TO JOIN