

nrpems

EMBRACING EQUITY

CONNECTING COMMUNITIES

MISSION

To embrace equity and connect communities through leadership in diversity, equity, inclusion, and belonging while fostering professional growth.

VISION

To be the champion for diversity, equity, inclusion, and belonging within the parks and recreation profession

WHO WE ARE

Founded to promote diversity and equity within parks and recreation, the National Recreation and Park Ethnic Minority Society (NRPEMS) is a dynamic and inclusive professional organization.

NRPEMS serves as a resource, advocate, and network for ethnic minority professionals dedicated to improving access to recreational opportunities and fostering inclusive practices in the communities they serve.

KEY INITIATIVES

- Mentoring Program: Designed to connect emerging professionals with seasoned leaders to build meaningful, career-enhancing relationships.
- Educational Resources: Offering workshops, webinars, and tools to help professionals incorporate equity and diversity into their work.
- Recognition Programs: Celebrating excellence through awards and honors that highlight contributions to equity, diversity, and inclusion in parks and recreation.

● Contact Us

(206) 486-7578

info@nrpems.org

nrpems.org